Jerry Lee Taylor
October 7, 1946 - March 9, 2015

Jerry Lee Taylor was born October 7, 1946, in Ft. Collins, CO. to Betty Lee (Christensen) Taylor and Gordon Eugene Taylor. He passed away unexpectedly March 9, 2015. He graduated from Loveland High School then enlisted into the U.S. Coast Guard for 4 years. Upon his return from the service, he received his bachelor and masters degree in Electrical Engineering from CSU. He had his own real estate business in Ft Collins before moving to Texas. His last place of residence was Frisco, TX, but he called Loveland, Colorado home. Jerry will be remembered by many friends and family as a fun loving and witty man. He had many interests and lived a full life. He leaves behind two children, Julie Taylor-Zafuto of Phoenix, AZ and her son Gage Anthony Zafuto. Trevor Nicholas Taylor of Okeene, OK and his wife Lilly and son Hayden. His sister, Judith Eggleston and husband Dave of Loveland, CO. and her daughter Kayleen Levernier and husband Jeff of Loveland, CO. Jerry is preceded in death by his loving mother Betty Lee Taylor Madsen and Gordon Eugene Taylor, both of Loveland, CO. Jerry enjoyed golfing, exercising, traveling, socializing with friends and family, was an avid Denver Bronco fan and had a strong personal relationship with The Lord. Jerry will forever hold a special place in many peoples heart. He will truly be missed. Cremation has taken place and there will be no service.
